

Transformation Of The World Through Self

Transformation is essential and we, as servants of humanity, have the sacred obligation and privilege of building, through our thoughts, words, and deeds; Peace, Love, and Harmony here on Earth. Transformation of the world can only be accomplished through the transformation of self.

Although we serve in the creation of a better world individually, together there is an energy which is created that greatly assists this noble purpose. As citizens of the planet and as servants to humanity, let us join together in the building of a better world. Therefore.

If you encounter malevolence, make of yourself a point of Kindness.
If you encounter greed, make of yourself a point of Abundance.
If you encounter envy, make of yourself a point of Charity.
If you encounter darkness, make of yourself a point of Light.
If you encounter apathy, make of yourself a point of Life.
If you encounter hatred, make of yourself a point of Love.
If you encounter conflict, make of yourself a point of Peace.
And so it is.

By Maryann Miller